Pattaya, a beautiful city in the east coast of the Gulf of Thailand, is famous for its striking beaches and colourful life. Just two hours away from Bangkok, it offers a relaxing yet vibrant alternative to the capital city Bangkok. The destination is known to be the most famous sanctuary of relaxation in all of Thailand and a true party town with sun, sand and sea. Parasailing and jet skiing are very popular among tourists visiting Pattaya. The famous Walking Street is a must visit.

The area is famous for its seafood. With great international and local cuisine on offer, you will surely make a return trip. To enjoy all this and more, plan your next trip to this beautiful city soon. While you are planning, follow our guide to know about some of the best budget-friendly hotels in Pattaya.

Sabai Lodge

The beautiful and traditional Thai style hotel, Sabai Lodge is just a 90-minute drive from the Suvarnabhumi Airport. Located in the heart of Pattaya, the hotel offers a fun retreat and is ideal for families as well as single travellers. The hotel features three outdoor pools. However, this is not all it has to offer. Spend your day playing a game of billiards, lie on the sunlounger and work on your tan, or get a pampering massage—the choice is up to you.

While enjoying a relaxing massage or swimming in the pool, don't worry about your kids because the hotel also offers babysitting services. Besides, you can relish an amazing European or Thai meal at the in-house restaurant. The rooms are specially designed to maximize your comfort. All the rooms are furnished with gorgeous wooden furniture and come with a small seating area. All the rooms in Sabai Lodge are air-conditioned. Each room has a private bathroom and cable TV. Every room and all public areas in the hotel have free Wi-Fi accessibility. Other facilities include laundry, room service, free private parking, 24-hour front desk and tour desk. Besides, just a 5-minute walk away from the hotel is the beach where you can enjoy all day, and bustling shopping centres where you can shop till you drop!
